SEDC Strategic Priorities

- Attraction - attract basic enterprises that create diverse, quality employment opportunities for Shawnee residents. Specially targeting: light manufacturing, high-tech, bioscience, distribution, export-oriented services, and corporate headquarters.
- Retention & Expansion - retain and expand existing basic employers in the community by adding employees and facilities, and promoting community engagement.
- Development - encourage residential and commercial development, including retail, hospitality and destination businesses to create local amenities for residents and to attract visitors.
- Marketing - promote and market Shawnee's advantages, business environment, and quality of life.
- Membership - provide value and connections for SEDC investor members.

Put Yourself In Good Company

Working to promote job creation, business expansion & retention, and real estate development in Shawnee

Good Business Starts Here

About the SEDC

Established in 1994, the Shawnee Economic Development Council (SEDC) works collaboratively with the City of Shawnee and the Shawnee Chamber of Commerce to drive business growth and development. This is accomplished by coordinating business activities to attract and expand the number of jobs and investments in Shawnee, and by developing key strategic partnerships in the community to facilitate economic progress. The SEDC also assists existing Shawnee businesses by providing educational offerings, expansion assistance, and opportunities for networking and camaraderie.

Our number one priority is promoting Shawnee as a distinctive business location with an enhanced quality of life.

SEDC Services

The SEDC supports new and expanding businesses by providing:

- Data and information about available buildings and commercial sites
- Business-incentives programs
- Labor-force data
- Trade-area profiles
- Demographics
- Economic statistics
- A one-stop business-resource center

SEDC support for existing businesses include:

- Access to business and entrepreneurial resources
- Outreach activities
- Opportunities to participate in industry events and award competitions

Annual Membership Investment

SEDC membership consists of business representatives from across the Kansas City metropolitan area who are interested in the growth and development of Shawnee. Members are privy to exclusive members-only announcements and activities. You will also have access to information, resources and networks that focus on advancing the economic health of the City.

To join the SEDC, please complete the application in this brochure and send with your dues to:
